Winooski Natural Resources Conservation District Announces Updated Website Featuring Tools and Resources for Towns, Organizations and the General Public

BERLIN, VT – The Winooski Natural Resources Conservation District is pleased to announce their updated website featuring resources, links and tools for towns, organizations, and the general public. The updated website includes information about the WNRCD including services provided and examples of conservation work accomplished.

The new "Your Resources" section is filled with user friendly links, resources and information geared towards all sectors of natural resource conservation issues within the District. Focuses included information on invasive species, TMDL's, tools and resources for mapping and information on the WNRCD four core areas, including: agricultural assistance, forestland enhancement, urban conservation, and watershed stewardship. The updated website includes links to the WNRCD new educational factsheet series as well as the Blog "Watershed Notes."

To view the website and the featured resources, please visit: www.winooskinrcd.org.   The public can also follow WNRCD on Twitter or on Facebook.

The Winooski Natural Resources Conservation District is one of 14 conservation districts throughout Vermont. It encompasses all of Chittenden and Washington County as well as parts of Orange County (Orange, Williamstown and Washington). The district relies on grants and individual donations to complete its conservation work. The WNRCD focuses its resources on completing conservation projects within the areas of agricultural assistance, forestland enhancement, urban conservation and watershed stewardship.
